BACKGROUND and LANGUAGES AN A

Sharangara of Oomis is an attractive woman, well versed in lore and seeking even greater knowledge. Sharangara was born to a minor merchant family, and regularly met with some of the Blue Giants merchants to trade for the rare hides and ivories that the Blue Nomads are known for.

Later Sharangara met the magician, Oomathax the Quill, and persuaded him to teach her some of his secret arts. She was a naturally-gifted magician and learned quickly.

Here her beauty caused trouble. Kall Koltis, a noble of Satarla, became besotted with her, and insisted on employing her in his household. She refused, so in his anger he slew her mentor Oomathax - who had rushed to her aid - and burned down his home. Fleeing, she hooked up with Argol Arran, whom she had known from his time under Oomathax's wing. Together they have made a pact to return some day to avenge his death.
