Preface

Lovecraftian Horror Namer

In some dark corners of the world lie creatures and beings that are almost indescribable. To hear their name is to invoke terror, to see them is to bring madness down on a fragile mortal mind. There are simply things in the universe you were not meant to know. And each of them has name.

How to Use

To use this horror name generator is quite simple, all you need is a couple of d10 dice.

1. Roll a d100 (two d20 with one nominated as the tens the other as the single)
2. Check the result on each of the tables, combining the last two parts as one word.
3. You can roll for each chart or save time and use the same number on each table. Or roll on the examples table provided.
