Page 120 - Thierry Renault - Combat - After "Pistol, Flintlock*" it says "(I2)", which should be removed.

Ideology/Beliefs: the condition of France is pitiable. The best chance for France to regain her former glory is for the Third Estate (the common people) to challenge the absolute rule of Louis XVI. This may need violence if those in power refuse to share. An ardent follower of Rosseau, you believe that the only way for the people of France to be truly free is to rule themselves. You keep quiet about these beliefs in barracks. You work as a soldier to support your aged father, who would otherwise starve. However, you do discuss politics with those you trust.

Page 123 - Christophe Presse - Comrades - there is an extra (sixth) bullet point at the end, which should be removed.
